

PREACHING No.21: ON PREDESTINATION

(Preached in Locodjro, Abidjan – Ivory Coast/ www.matth25v6.org)

We are not temporal but eternal. Before there was an angel or a star in the sky, an atom of stone on the earth, you and I were there, already redeemed according to Eph.1:4. But our bodies were created the day when God created Adam. Adam begot Seth, Seth begot Enosh, Enosh begot Cainan, Cainan begot Mahalaleel... up to my grandfather who begot my father. You and I were in Adam's loins whereas the children of the devil were in the loins of the serpent that walked and spoke like man in the garden of Eden. God took water, potassium, oil, magnesium, iron... and created us. But our spirit that is accepting the midnight Cry was already there when God created our body. And thus it is by predestination that one accepts the Message of his time according to Act.13:48 and Rom.8:29-30 or that one accepts seduction according to Rev.13:8.

When Noah was preaching the condemnation and judgement on the religious systems of his time and the children of the devil gnashed with their teeth, shouting: "We will never accept your message, we will remain in our churches, missions and ministries. We will use our Louis Segond, Thompson and Scofield bibles that you burn. We've also found errors in the Darby version... We rest on Enoch, our father who was enraptured..." "you see? "We rest on Jesus-Christ crucified, we have Moses, Osborn, Billy Graham, William Branham..." When Moses passed the Red Sea with Jews, we were there shouting joyfully, but we had no body. When Jeremiah, Isaiah, Ezekiel, Amos... were prophesying against the religious systems of their time, we were there shouting: "Amen! Amen! Amen!". When the Lord Jesus shouted: "offspring of vipers, snakes on the grass, whited coffin, fools! ...", You and I were there shouting: "Alleluia! Hosanna!". When Martin Luther was condemning the catholic church, when John Calvin was condemning lutherans, when William Branham was condemning all the religious systems of his time, you and I were there saying "Amen!" to each word.

Since the founding of the world, each messenger was with his group. When Moses passed the Red Sea, Elijah passed with his seven thousand souls. Isaiah passed with those of his. Jeremiah passed with those of his. Amos passed with those of his. Habakkuk passed with those of his... And our group passed. [Ed: the congregation says: Amen!] On April 24, 1993 before the Angel and Lamb descended, you and I were together. Let's read that: "And I Daniel alone saw the vision; and the men that were with me saw not the vision, but a great quaking fell on them, and they fled to hide themselves." And that also occurred in Exo.19 and they said to Moses: "Let God speak to you and you, report to us". You see? I did not ask them who they were or where they came from for they were with me but it was the greatness of the vision that caused them to run and hide. When I was in spirit in the vision, I had thus thought that they were there. Daniel 10:7 says what occurred on April 24, 1993. And God Himself had joy with us before the founding of the world. [Ed: the congregation says: Amen!]...

And today, while the midnight Cry is sounding, all the saints, those who are asleep included say "Amen!" to each word. The Bible says in Rev.17 and 13 that those whose names were not written in the book of Life of the Lamb before the founding of the world will remain in these catholic, protestant, evangelical churches, missions and ministries including all the branhamists. But the elect accept the Word of God not by wisdom or their knowledge of the Bible or intelligence, but by predestination. Act.13:48 says: "... believed, as many as were ordained to eternal life." Not the vigilant or attentive ones but the predestinated ones. It is not God who leads them to reject but God knows that they will reject. When the midnight Cry sounded before the founding of the world in God's mind, we accepted and our names were written in memory before God with the blood of the slain Lamb. And on April 24, 1993, according to Matth.25:6, when the Cry sounded on the earth, our names were pronounced together: "Simon! Raymond! Ignace..." according to Rev.2:17. And having heard the Cry, we have answered present to the call to the marriage, that is why we are here.

But if a son of the devil listens to that, he will say: "But if God has already chosen some and condemned others, why go to church?" Brethren, do not be distracted, God is omniscient and sovereign. It is like a competitive test to enter the public service where the Government needs ten people and you are on a list of two hundred candidates. Brethren, is it because one hundred and ninety candidates will be excluded that you will not sit it? Sit it with faith! And if an angel of light should come to tell me that I will not be saved, like Ruth and Rahab, God will put my name! And He has already put it! And it is because my name is written that I have received the Message of my time [Ed: the congregation says: Amen!]. And all that I must do, it is to see to it that, like Judas, my name may not be blotted out.

And one of the mysteries of predestination is that... you see? There are some brethren who told me: "Brother Philip, I believed in polygamy, I believed that the headscarf was the veil, I also believed that the tithe was abolished but when I believed in this Message, I did not even try to know, I never put any question about those things... I have buried all those old beliefs conforming myself to what the Message has said..." Brethren, may God bless you! And thus people of all the churches found themselves in this Message because before the founding of the world, God had decided that.

Well! Let's go back to Genesis... When Noah died, he went to preach into the dwelleth of the dead, the children of Cain refused, but those of Seth accepted. When Jeremiah was killed by the priests of his time, he went to preach to those who had not believed in Noah, but in spite of their torments, they rejected Jeremiah, none of them could repent. When Isaiah was sawn into pieces by the priests and the people, when each prophet, according to Matth.23:35 died, he went there to bring his Message. And all those who had rejected the Message of their time when they were alive, rejected as well. Those who had stoned when they were alive, sought to stone them in spite of their torments but Abel, Noah, Jeremiah... and all those who had believed in their Message rejoiced. When Job saw Jesus, he cried out: "didn't I say that my eyes would see my Redeemer!" Today, while the Cry of Matth.25:6 is sounding, it is the same as in Noah's days, the Lord Jesus' and each prophet's. The Lord said: "What took place in the days of Noah shall also take place", of course, with the presence of Noah on the earth. The devil is multiplying the churches, performing wonders to divert people and lead them far from what God is doing here. The Lord said that if those days were not cut short, no flesh would be saved. But see all those churches and those converts but I tell you in the name of the Lord Jesus that they will go to hell.

Notice that according to Noah's days, out of fifty sincere people here, about ten are of the mixed multitude, thirty five will be saved through the tribulation and five will go in the rapture. But there are less children of God today. The group of Matth.25:31 to 41 refers to those who did good to some disciples who brought the sublime Truth and who were hated by the religious world. That is even clearer in Matth.10:41 and 42. Apart from that it is a false interpretation. You see that even there it is not an easy act since we condemn everybody. So, if you go and offer tons of rice to baptist prisoners, and you think that that refers to Matth.25:34 to 40, it is a false interpretation.
